Thanks to all who have resubscribed: Terrance Teagarden of Toledo, OH, Steve Gerweck of Monroe, MI, Allan Cooper of Wyandotte, MI, Jonathan Gold of Elizabeth, NJ, Lenny LaPadula of Paramus, NJ, Robert Rothhaas of Shady Side, MD, Robert Scobie of Atlanta, GA, John Bailey from Phoenixville, PA (Hat Guy), John Pantozzi of Franklin Square, NY, Patricia Esposito of Stamford, CT,

A very Special THANK YOU to Marti & Dory Funk, Jr. of Ocala, FL for 6 subscriptions...

A sad month for me. I lost a very special friend, Carole Ahern of Edgewater, FL. on June 16th. She was very dear to me, and she will be missed.

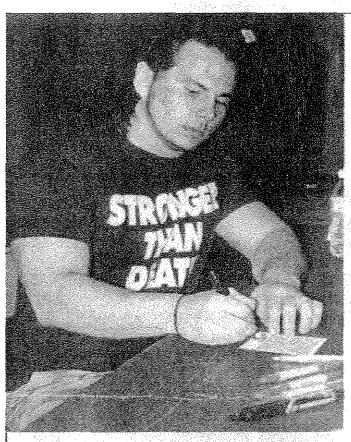
And Rosemary Armento of Brooklyn, NY informed me that her roommate Theresa Piccitto also passed away. This came as a total shock to me, she was only in her 40's. Both are Chatterboxers. My deepest sympathy and condolences to family and friends.

Daniel Beaumont of Australia called me to let me know he will be working as referee for Big Japan, Zero One and Hustle. He is so excited to say the least... He can't wait for the time to come.....

This month since we have honored Matt on the cover, the prize is a Matt Hardy 8x10 colored photo.
Send me your Name, Address, Phone Number, Birthday and Favorite Wrestler to either my home of email GMakpoulos@aol.com

Congratulations to Keith Frank of Harmony, PA on winning last months prize—Backyard Criminals DVD.

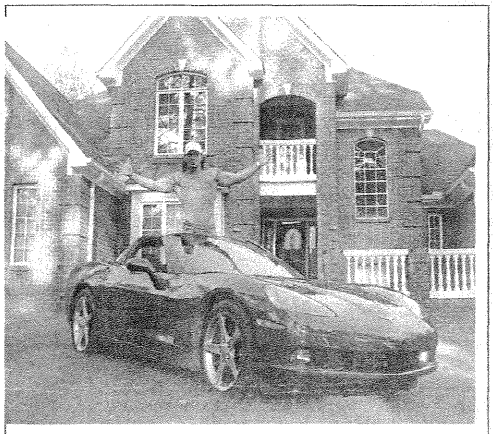
Just a quick note, I'm not sure yet, but it is possible there may not be an August issue.
I just didn't want anyone worrying if there isn't one.
Enjoy this issue and TRY to stay COOL.. Hot, Hot Summer



Matt Hardy at the PCW show in Chicago. They drew a little over 1,000 fans and I do believe that Matt Hardy had plenty to do with that.. The fans just love Matt, and he is so accessible.

Matt with Lucas, his best friend

Matt with his new lady "friend" Lori in the whirl pool. Matt told some fans at a recent Autograph Signing that he is finished with Lita.. Many fans are thinking that this whole thing has been a work from the start, now that Matt is back in WWE. But it is not.....



Matt enjoys the good life, with a very nice house and a real hot car.

I would have enjoyed seeing Matt join TNA instead of going back to WWE. One reason, he really loved Lita and they have been together for a long time. It will be very hard to see her on the road all the time. Rumors have it that Lita and Edge have broken up and Edge is trying to patch things up in his 4 month marriage.

You have to know the reason WWE would want Matt Hardy back because of all the internet publicity on this whole affair.

Eventually everyone is expecting a Matt Hardy vs. Edge match, probably at WWE SummerSlam. Waiting any longer, it just wouldn't mean anything, It 's already getting stale. But if I was the WWE I wouldn't want this match to take place, there will be legit heat stemming from Edge dating Lita.

I have received so many complimentary letters from fans who just love Matt. They have all said, he is so friendly with the fans. Good luck Matt, we are behind you.....

THE WAY I SEE IT BY AFA THE WILD SAMOAN

I'd like to begin this month's article by expressing my sadness to those of you in London who have experienced loss and tragedy due to the terrorist attacks. I know that my brother and I have many fans in London, and we have always enjoyed our time in England, so I pray that the British are getting their lives back to normal the best that they can. As I wrote my last column, I headed off to Italy for a five-day wrestling clinic that ended with a wrestling show. Twenty three VERY brave young athletes dedicated themselves to my Wild Samoan Training Center Clinic that took place in Torino, Italy. It was very hard on the students because we trained three hours in the morning and three hours in the afternoon in very hot conditions. The wrestling ring was outside on the fourth floor of a gym with the sun beating down while these kids gave it their all. Their attitudes were amazing, and they would not quit no matter how tough it was. The company that brought me over to do the clinic was overwhelmed with the closeness of me and the students after just a few short days of being together. My two trainers, Havoc and Tonic from WXW, along with my son L.A. Smooth assisted me in making this week unforgettable for these kids. The ages ranged from 14 to over 30. I gave everyone a nickname to help me remember them. We had one girl who I named "Crazy Girl" because she had no fear, a 15-year-old who we called "Mick Foley", "Afa Jr.", who was our translator, and "Wrestlemania"- who can tell you EVERYTHING that you ever wanted to know about the history of wrestling. After the five days were complete, I had to pick six of the best students, and they got to wrestle on the show, and to my surprise they did extremely well. The main event on the show were my two trainers, with the special referee, Mick Foley. Havoc got out of control, and Mick Foley "socked" him while the fans cheered. After the wrestling show, we all went to dinner. I was overwhelmed by the outpouring of love by the students, and a few of them sat and cried because the clinic came to an end. They walked me to the car and followed me back to my hotel. My wife and daughter became very attached to them and cried along with them. One of the students who has great potential is from South Africa, living in London, and is planning to come to train with me in September. The company, Nu-Wrestling, was so happy with the turnout that we are discussing doing it once again in September in the city of Rome. This was especially satisfying for me because I have so many kids that contact me from overseas longing for the opportunity to train by a sanctioned school under proper supervision. Talks are in the working for the Wild Samoan Training Center to finally make its way overseas, and I will post information on my website as it becomes confirmed for those of you who are interested in joining the program. On another note, our 8th year of Sportsfest, 2005, was a great success. Some of the stars who came to lend a hand were my nephew Rosey, brother Sika, sons Samu, L.A. Smooth, and Afa Jr., cousin Jimmy "Superfly" Snuka, former student Gene Snitsky, and my longtime friend Sabu. Of course, my WXW family from Pennsylvania as well as Florida. We closed out the weekend with a show in the Fernwood Hotel and Resort, and will return there Sunday, September 4th at 7:30 p.m. for a Labor Day Weekend bash.

In closing, I want to ask you to keep the residents of Florida in your prayers as they clean up their lives from the recent hurricane Dennis. As many of you know, my brother and family live there, and our WXW runs out of Pensacola. We had to cancel our three shows scheduled for July and are hoping that things will be back to normal for August.

Until next month, stay safe and healthy, and be good to each other.
God Bless, Afa the Wild Samoan (Pops)
This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad. God is good all the time.

THREE WRESTLERS PASS AWAY THIS MONTH

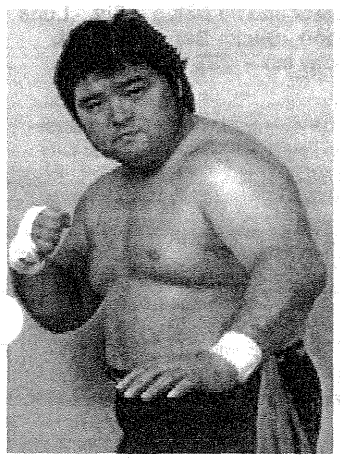
Miguel Perez Sr., one-half of the tag team attraction at Madison Square Garden in the late 50s was found dead on July 16th in Puerto Rico. Perez and Antonino Rocca were a top Tag Team for Vince McMahon Sr. They were his World tag team champions, taking the belts from Wildman Jackie Fargo and Don Stevens (later Don Fargo) on March 30, 1957 at the Garden. Rocca and Perez were a very popular tag team in the 60's. The pair first hit the mat together in early 1957. The high-flying Rocca was slowing down, and promoters saw an opportunity to pair him with a good-looking, young Latino wrestler. Perez was born in Puerto Rico in 1937. Perez, whose first name was Jose, actually started in the New York area as a heel. Wrestling historian Fred Hornby recalled that he was elevated to main event status because he appeared to be the best of the available ethnic wrestlers at the time. Everybody pictures him with the white trunks and the white books – when he broke in, he was a heel. It wasn't for long. It was only for a few weeks. He was in black trunks and black boots," Hornby recalled. Perez and Rocca "hitched up and the rest is history." His primary duty as part of the team was to take a beating before tagging Rocca for a fiery comeback. "Perez, not a polished wrestler or showman, is usually pummeled by the villains to the point where his pompadour is dismantled. Then Rocca, seeking revenge for the abuse to Perez' hair tonic, springs into action," writer Gay Talese reported in New York Times.

As a combo, Rocca and Perez were box office magic to the Latino community. They headlined 28 of 34 cards at Madison Square Garden from 1957 to 1960, and were undefeated all the time. They faced The Fargo Brothers, The Fabulous Kangaroos, and The Tolos Brothers and the Golden Grahams, among other teams, and easily drew larger crowds on a regular basis than any team in the history of the federation.

Their only reported loss came after they re-teamed in Puerto Rico as WWC North American champions in 1976. They lost to Gordon Nelson and Higo Hamaguchi that October. Rocca died the following year.

Perez continued as an undercard worker in the then-WWWF through most of the 1960s. He teamed with Victor Rivera for several months in 1968, his last in the WWWF. He also appeared in the Buffalo area at that time. He spent most of the rest of his career in Puerto Rico and held the WWC Puerto Rican championship four times from 1974 to 1977 against Tosh Togo, Hurrican Castillo and others. His son, Miguel Perez Jr., wrestled for the WWF as one of Los Boricuas in the 1990s and is active in the IWA promotion in Puerto Rico.



Shinya Hashimoto dies suddenly

Japanese star Shinya Hashimoto passed away this morning with initial media reports out of Japan being that the death was caused by a brain aneurysm. Hashimoto collapsed and was rushed via ambulance to a hospital in Yokohama, but was unable to be revived. Hashimoto, who just turned 40, was a former IWGP and All Japan Triple Crown champion as well as one third of New Japan's "Three Musketeers" with Keiji Mutoh and Masahiro Chono. Hashimoto came over to the U S a few years back to work a program with Steve Corino over the NWA championship as well. Hashimoto was also the founder of the ZERO-ONE promotion, which he left on bad terms last year with partner Yoshiyuki Nakamura continuing on under the name ZERO-ONE MAX. In recent months, Hashimoto had been recovering from major shoulder surgery, which he had been delaying forever. Never a svelte figure, he's been called the "Japanese Elvis" – going as far as dressing up like The King. Over the past couple of years, Hashimoto made cameo appearances in two Japanese films, Muscle Heat and Shin Karate Baka Ichidai.

Lord Alfred George James Hayes passed away on July 21st in Texas. He fell out of bed over the weekend, which led to a series of strokes leaving him basically catatonic and moaning in pain.

Birthday: August 8, 1928 (76)
Debut: 1950
Previous Gimmicks: "Judo" Al Hayes
Notable Feuds: Johnny Weaver
NWA Western States Tag Team title (2);
NWA Texas Tag Team titles;
NWA (Central States) Tag Team titles;

Alfred Hayes managed a tag team known as The Imperial Russians (Nikolai Volkoff and Chris Markov)..
1982: Lord Alfred Hayes joined the World Wrestling Federation..
1983: Alfred Hayes retired after suffering some severe inflammation in his joints that laid him up for several months.. Alfred Hayes was later diagnosed with a condition called rheumatoid arthritis..
Alfred Hayes is best remembered for his co-hosting duties on WWF Tuesday Night Titans along with Vince McMahon..
Alfred also did announcing with Bob Caudle in Mid-Atlantic Wrestling..
Alfred Hayes eventually resigned with the WWF as a broadcast announcer and backstage interviewer..
1984: Alfred Hayes was phased out as a backstage interviewer and replaced by the famous Mean Gene Okerland..
Alfred Hayes was the commentator for recorded House Shows (MSG, Boston Garden, Maple Leaf etc) throughout the 1980s..
Alfred Hayes provided play by play announcing for the Hulk Hogan/King Kong Bundy main event at WrestleMania II..
Lord Alfred Hayes also became the voice for WWF Coliseum Home Video.
Alfred Hayes also got a knee replacement, which gave him some relief from the arthritis for several years..
1990: Alfred Hayes was hit by a speeding car as he was walking across the street in Stamford CT.. Alfred Hayes was thrown up in the air, landing on his back and his hip.. He got blood poisoning from all the gravel and dirt that got into his hip, and he needed numerous skin grafts..
Alfred Hayes hosted the Update segments on WWF Superstars of Wrestling programming..
He began concentrating on Coliseum Home Video Dept, and adopted a heel attitude while calling matches..
1993: Lord Alfred Hayes was phased out of WWF programming as the company began taking a 'new direction'..
A few years later they discovered a lump on his spine that the doctors initially thought was cancer..
Luckily, it turned out to be bone calcifications from his accident..
Alfred had to have several vertebrae taken out to remove the lump, and as a result he is several inches shorter than he used to be..
1995: Alfred Hayes departed the WWF after his long run with the co..
1996: Alfred Hayes briefly commentated for Tito Santana's short-lived American Wrestling Federation promotion.. We would like to send out condolences to Alfred's family, Friends and Fans. He was very beloved and will be missed terribly. Rose Berg sends her love too.....

HAYES, ALFRED GEORGE JAMES

NOTES & NEWS

Road Warrior Animal and Heidenreich shocked MNM by capturing the WWE Tag Team Championship at The Great American Bash, reviving the Doomsday Device finisher.

PokerQuest Entertainment is in negotiations with Stacy Keibler to host a planned January 2006 Poker Tournament, with a $15 million prize for the winner. This is right up my alley. My husband and I are big Poker players online, we love it. If any of you are poker players, I would like to suggest trying Gaming Club Poker, one of the best sites on the internet. Poker by the Gaming Club Online Poker Room They have free tournaments where you can win real money. The highest amount George won was $2,600. But if you do bet with real money, bet with your head, not over it....

Simon Diamond of TNA talks about the SPIKE TV deal. Simon Says:: July 27, 2005 .....Last week I asked ALL wrestling fans to pray for a TV deal for TNA. Well, guess what? GOD IS A WRESTLING FAN!!! What a great day it was. The wrestling business has changed now that there is another promotion with national television. I can't wait to get started and watch the ratings climb and climb. I know we have something different to offer then the other guys; athletic, innovative wrestling with a fresh roster and a real creative team. Now, lets all support it!!! Let's send a message that we are not happy and we want an alternative. Competition brings out the best in everyone and the real winners will be you, the fans. This is the start of something big so get ready. Thanks for your prayers, God does listen. Remember.. GOD IS A WRESTLING FAN (what a great T-shirt) I'm Simon Diamond and that's Simon Says. Any problems?

Sabu has been added back on TNA roster... Seems to be back in great shape, not missing a step, since illness...

This was posted on WWE website: Reliable sources have informed WWE.com that Muhammad Hassan will be out indefinitely as a result of the Last Ride delivered to him by the Undertaker at The Great American Bash. At this point, it is doubtful that he will return to action. This was done due to the fact that WOR—UPN didn't want Hassan character on TV with all the terror bombings, etc.

Currently here are the names of employees that were already released or contracts expired.
Joy Giovanni, Bubba & Dvon Dudley, Matt Morgan, Charlie Haas, Jackie Gayda, Marty Jannetty, Dawn Marie, Mark Jindrak, Matt Wiese (Luther Reigns), Maven, Shannon Moore, James Yun (Akio), David Heath (Gangrel), Billy Kidman, Spike Dudley, Kevin Fertig, Marc Lloyd, Jim Cornette, Earl Hebner, Dave Hebner, and Ivory (Lisa Moretti)
I have been told approximately 15 from the Titan Office (Creative and Licensing) were also released and Lynn & Dennis Brent are gone. With the Brent's, I believe it has a lot to do with them moving back to Texas. Dennis was in charge of the third party bookings. That is 40+ employees being released, the most since I have been following wrestling.

There is a Summer Slam commercial airing in several cable markets advertising the top matches for the PPV, which include:
Shawn Michaels vs. Hulk Hogan
John Cena vs. Edge (Since Matt Hardy came back, this was changed to Jericho vs Cena)
Batista vs. Muhammad Hassan (This should be changed)
Triple H vs. Ric Flair The Undertaker Vs Randy Orton

Mick Foley has his book "Scooter" out, so I'm sure we will be seeing more of him on WWE TV, to promote his book.

Stacy Keibler has an interview in Steppin' Out Magazine Stacy does mention that Vince asked her to pose in Playboy twice, which she refused. Sexy Stacy dons the cover. http://www.steppinoutmagazine.com/

UFC Bumps WWE WWE Velocity on August 6th will air at 7 PM (ET) due to Spike TV's coverage of the live UFC Ultimate Fight Night event.

Bruno Sammartino is very excited about his brand new website: www.BrunoBrunoBruno.com They are currently working on five DVD's, and three of them are now on sale on his new site.

A Tour of Italy $19.95
Inside Bruno's Workout $19.95
Bruno Sammartino: Strongman $19.95
Also Bruno's autobiography, exclusive photo and more....

Bruno will be on WOR/UPN after Smackdown on 7/28th. WOR followed Bruno to the Statue of Liberty on the Cruise around Manhattan Island, in front of MSG and more,.....

D.C. based Indy group WAW posted this on their website... World Alliance of Wrestling, Inc. is proud to announce the NEW Co-Owner of the WAW Jasmin St. Claire!
WAW just recently cancelled the rest of their shows for 2005 after postponing and eventually cancelling shows in April and May.

VH1's Sunday Night 'Celebreality' Block Attracts 10.2 Million Viewers July 12, 3:19 pm ET Basic Cable's #1 Program - 'Hogan Knows Best' - Bodyslams the Competition and Scores Highest Rated Premiere Ever for VH1 All Three Premieres Broke Top Ten Cable Networks Most Watched Programs of the Day Among the Key P18-49 Demographic.
The second show dropped 35% in viewership.

I feel that Hulk's show has a lot to do with helping Brooke in her singing career. If the ratings drop each week, that's not a good sign.

Brooke is a beautiful girl, but I think Daddy Hogan is a bit too hard on her. He is treating her like she is a baby. Hulk, give her a break, she's Daddy's little girl, I'm sure she is a lady at all times. I didn't care for the show that much. But Hulk's home is gorgeous... See ya soon.....

NY Governor George Pataki signed into law on July 19th bill A07496 (details online: http://assembly.state.ny.us/leg/?bn=A07496), which greatly reduces some of the outdated restrictions on professional wrestling today.

The new bill removes the outdated licensing requirements for referees, judges, match-maker, timekeeper, treasurer, box office employee, manager, trainer, second or announcer (The NY State Athletic Commission stopped issuing wrestler's licenses around 2002).

However, the bill was also a small step backward, as the same bill closed an existing loophole. While the original law did state that a promoter's license was required, the law now includes that promoting without a license can result in a misdemeanor charge. We will still work to have this requirement removed as well, but we understand the need to close legal loopholes.

Professional Wrestling laws in New York have been barely updated since 1920. This is the biggest step in a campaign to reform professional wrestling laws, and point out the flaws in the inconsistent actions by the New York State Athletic Commission.

A website has been maintained detailing the various bills and letters written about this issue. It's available at http://www.worldofhurtwrestling.com/makewrestlingfree

Pro wrestlers pin down Spike TV

By Chris Lewis, clewis@nashvillecitypaper.com
July 22, 2005

Nashville-based TNA Entertainment took a big leap into the pro-wrestling ring with this week's announcement that the company's weekly series, iMPACT!, will be aired by Spike TV this fall.

TNA signed a deal with the national cable TV network to carry the one-hour show on its popular "Slammin' Saturday Night" programming block, in a slot now occupied by World Wrestling Entertainment (WWE).

Being seen on a national network with 89 million viewers is the "biggest deal" so far for TNA, said Chris Blechschmidt, TNA's director of affiliate relations and marketing.

"We're really the new kid on the block. We're jumping in, we're getting national exposure now," he said. "And it's going to explode once we get this rolling."

TNA Entertainment, founded three years ago by Nashville-area wrestler Jeff Jarrett and his father, Jerry, produces pay-per-view wrestling events each month that are carried on iN DEMAND, DIRECTV and Dish Network, among other TV networks. iMPACT!, which is taped at Universal Studios in Orlando, Fla., focuses on high-risk, live-action athletic entertainment by its stars, including Jarrett, Raven, Jeff Hardy and AJ Styles.
The year-old show has been run on Fox Sports Net Fridays at 3 p.m. After the contract ran out, TNA seized the opportunity to move over to Spike TV, since the WWE is moving its show to the USA Network.

"It's the push we really need to really take it to the next level," Blechschmidt said. "Our goal is to basically drive ratings for Spike, drive ratings for iMPACT! and then generate pay-per-view buys."
Spike TV gives TNA a better edge because Fox Sports Net aired iMPACT! over its network of regional channels, which meant the show didn't always air at the same time in all markets, said Tom Umstead, programming editor for the cable TV trade magazine Multichannel News.
Spike gives TNA a significant boost in competing more effectively against the industry giant, WWE, he said.
"And I think Spike TV's deal will go a long way in giving them the opportunity to get some of the same exposure that WWE does on cable," Umstead said. This is major news for TNA.....

AN ALL-STAR CAST HEADLINES A VERY VEGAS CHRISTMAS STORY IN USA NETWORK'S THREE WISE GUYS Holiday Movie from Vesuvius Productions and Lions Gate Television To Premiere November 20th Bethlehem was never like this. The three wise men of Christmas past will be replaced this holiday season by gun-toting gangsters Vincent, Joey and George chasing a mother-to-be across the desert when USA Network presents THREE WISE GUYS, it was announced by Bonnie Hammer, president, USA Network and SCI FI Channel. The two hour original film will debut on Sunday, November 20, at 9:00 PM ET/PT.

Tom Arnold (Best Damned Sports Show Period, Austin Powers), Judd Nelson (Suddenly Susan, The Breakfast Club), Katey Sagal (8 Simple Rules, Married...With Children) and Nick Turturro (NYPD Blue, The Longest Yard) head an all-star cast of television veterans in this genre-bending takeoff on the traditional Christmas story. The cast also features Eddie McClintock (Crumbs, Friends), Jodi Lyn O'Keefe (She's All That, Nash Bridges), Arye Gross (Minority Report, Ellen) and WWE Hall of Famer Rowdy Roddy Piper as the Pastor. We've put together a perfect comic ensemble for this very funny holiday film," said Hammer. "'Three Wise Guys' is a truly fresh antidote to typical Yuletide fare."

The Three Count BY Jake T. Icon

So I'm having lunch at one of Hollywood's hot spots called Kate Mantilini's and who do I see come in for a bite but none other then the Rock. He was accompanied by his wife, Dany and two others were supposed to join them. When the two others did not arrive Rock looked a bit upset. One of the two others was supposed to be Vince McMahon. Supposedly Rock was to have a power lunch with the Rock in discussing a possible short return to the ring and in return Vince would help promote Rock's new movie Doom coming out. Instead Vince stood him up leaving the now Hollywood thin" Rock sulking over his salad. This is kind of a similar deal Vince has with Hulk Hogan. Do a match with HBK and help promote Hogan Knows best the Reality show. We as wrestling fans should be honored that Vince is making moves like this to add a shock factor to his product. I mean we got to see Roddy Piper make a quick return only to get super kicked by HBK. But that's a cool feeling when we as fans get to be surprised with returns like these, especially one from the Rock.

Speaking of returns and The Rock. Remember over two years ago when I broke the wrestling story of the century when I said that Rock was quitting wrestling and jobbing to Goldberg and I had the picture to prove it. I mean how could we forget. Well now you can read about this discovery in book stores all over the country when Jack Benza's, the reality icon, book comes out next month. The name of the book is called "So you wannabe on Reality TV" and in it he discusses how Reality TV is rigged and how a person can make a living off of Reality TV like he has. He has done over 30 shows as a contestant and has won two cars, trips, and over $65 thousand in cash. Also in the book Jack Benza talks about how he had a conversation with the Rock and little something about Drew Barrymore. This is something you should definitely check out if you like Reality TV.

Mohammed Hassan's character has to go says UPN and within the month. Especially with the Terrorism going around in England it is not funny and I actually feel sorry for the guy playing this character. Hulk Hogan versus HBK should be the most anticipated match at SummerSlam. Here are two guys that were both champions 8 years ago and they were the dream match. At least we as fans can have that pleasure of watching it even though it will be no where near the caliber of what it could of been 8 years ago. I'm calling HBK the winner here even though I'm Hollywood all the way.

John Cena may be a great champ but his promos are tired, kind of like his music. I think they will keep him as champ, because of the merchandise sales of his spinning championship belt. In his promos it looks like he is trying to hard to do other people's jokes. I finally get the JBL character as I started watching Smackdown again. He's funny as a modern day million dollar man. Can Big Show be the one that breaks out of the master-lock? This gimmick is brilliant and should go as long as it can. Matt Hardy makes a return. Do we care? All I know is version 101 to be has the sassier worm virus and needs to be cleaned up a bit. See ya in thirty … Icon out. …..
